Scotts Hill High School

Foreword

At 8:00 each morning another day is begun at Scotts Hill School. Her corridors echo with chatter about basketball games, the Junior-Senior Prom, the English test, or Saturday's date.

To a few it is "just a school," but to the majority of students it is a place where they learned together, shared together, and had fun together. A year at Scotts Hill School is a composite of activities. It is this spirit of activity which our yearbook has attempted to capture.

Dedication

In understanding and deep appreciation, this volume of the Lion is dedicated to Mr. Michael Scott and Mrs. Margaret Dyer. The students of Scotts Hill School want each of you to know that your untiring efforts in their behalf are greatly appreciated.

Your guidance and friendship have stirred in the students the challenge to succeed in life. You have been a friend who was always willing to encourage and advise. You always have a warm understanding whenever we need you. No matter how long and hard the day has been, you still have time to help a student in need. You have devoted your time and talents to better prepare us for the future.

Mr. Scott, you have guided us faithfully and have often lent to us the strength that we needed for success. You are always ready to listen and, as a basketball coach, you proved that you cared and were concerned about us. You have displayed enthusiasm in such a way that we also became enthusiastic.

To you, Mrs. Dyer, we are grateful for your loyal support and endeavors during our high school career. Your sense of humor has been a supporting and moving prop during our last year here at our beloved Alma Mater. Your devoted efforts and high-standards are hopefully reflected in this yearbook.

We want to express appreciation for all the loving memories of your trust, confidence, wisdom, understanding, friendship, and love. We are exceedingly proud to dedicate this yearbook to Coach Scott and Mrs. Dyer.

Our Principal

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

1970 Graduating Class of Scotts Hill High, I congratulate you for earning the diploma.

May this be just the beginning to new decades of continued learning in whatever walk of life you may pursue:

It is my desire that these pathways through high school be memorable ones, and the gained knowledge be guidelines for recognizing and taking advantage of opportunities as they appear.

Good Luck,

J. Wayne Stanfill

Compliments of your Librarian,

Scotts Hill School

CHARLES "DOCK" WOODY

The Senior Class of 1970 would like to express appreciation to all who helped to make this yearbook possible. We would like to express a special thanks to our parents, the faculty, Mr. Stanfill, Mrs. Dyer, Mr. Woody for the excellent job of making our pictures, the ones who bought advertisements, and all who bought a copy of our yearbook. Without the help and co-operation of all, we could not have published this yearbook.
